See the Field: Kirlian Photography Reveals the Magic of Shungite at Work

BY MICHAEL HENRY DUNN
(for Cosmic Reality)

We know Shungite purifies water at a distance. Long ago, Czar Peter the Great knew it, and made sure that every soldier in the Russian army during his war with the Swedes had a Shungite nugget in his canteen. The poor Swedes did not and lost the war - and their breakfast - from rampant dysentery, while the victorious Russians drank pristine Shungite water.

Still, it is one thing to know it - and another thing to see it.

All you need do is a Google image search on "Kirlian" and the name Sofiya Blank (a renowned Russian scientist and Shungite researcher) and see revelatory images of the hidden aura surrounding a supernatural mineral!

Welcome to the magical world of Kirlian photography and the Shungite Field. Kirlian imagery captures the etheric and energetic field surrounding an object or a living thing. These images validated for the first time the ancient belief that (in the words of Cosmic Reality partner Walt Silva) "creation proceeds from above" - in other words, that the material level is a denser manifestation of the etheric blueprint.

And so for the first time, we were given actual sight of the Shungite Field - the connection to the Quantum reality via the unique link of the fullerene molecule embedded in Shungite somewhere in its trillion mile journey from galactic space.

"See the Field."

It has a cosmic ring to it, that phrase. Sort of like, "If you build it, they will come," from the popular 1980's movie, "Field of Dreams." Or even better, from a magical film a decade later, "The Legend of Bagger Vance" - when you truly 'see the Field,' your life falls into effortless harmony with all that is:

"SEE THE FIELD - IN HARMONY WITH ALL THAT IS"
(scene from "The Legend of Bagger Vance")

War-haunted golfer Randall Juna is guided by his mysterious caddy, Bagger Vance, to find his lost swing - "that swing which was yours from the moment you were brought into this world - waiting for you...in the Field."

See the Field...and find your own magic.

It may seem a bit of a stretch to compare an exotic molecule from deep space to the perfection of a golf swing. But it is becoming clearer every day that those who create a Field of Shungite in their lives find that they are seeing a surprising harmony emerge.

Perhaps this does indeed come from the Shungite connection to the Quantum Field - or from the demonstrated beneficial effect of Shungite upon the mystical pineal gland in the brain. In any case, this marvelous energy has now become visible to us in the Kirlian images of the etheric field surrounding the Shungite nuggets - the very nuggets which attenuate and purify your drinking water, literally disintegrating every impurity.

TRULY PURE, TRULY CLEAN - HOW TO CREATE SHUNGITE WATER

- Three Raw Shungite nuggets can transmute a glass of water or a pitcher of water instantaneously.
- Not only will all toxins be destroyed, the water will become alive with positive molecular spin.
- Your entire household water supply can be charged by taking a 5 inch piece of duct tape and sticking 3 nuggets end-to-end on the sticky side. Then wrap this in a spiral so the nuggets touch the pipe of either the cold water intake to the hot water heater or on the outside pipe where your main water supply comes into the house.

- You can obtain the same effect by using one of the Shungite magnets or even a Bucky Bandaid. The magnets produce an added field that may (not proven yet) be even more beneficial. Or you can do it one glass at a time by simply putting three nuggets into your pitcher, glass, or pet water dish.
- Shungite healing baths have been popular since the time of Russia's Peter the Great. It may be the antioxidants or it may be the Shungite energized water which balances the etheric body and promotes health at the 3-D level.

"Quantum physics is so much fun. It brings energy to the forefront of everything and allows for instantaneous transmutation by Shungite of all types of toxins spinning to the left (counterclockwise). When confronting Shungite's right hand spin (clockwise) the molecules essentially self-destruct as they begin to resonate (vibrate in unison) with the Shungite. This is true for toxins in water, food, and the EMF/Wifi/RF signals."

Spreading the Shungite Field - Join the Quest and Track the Growing Grids of Gaia!

Cosmic Reality's own Derek Condit creates a Map of Magic as we trace the growing Shungite Field and the Restoration of Gaia!

It seemed like pure whimsy at first. Cosmic Reality co-founder Derek Condit had embarked on an epic journey across the West, servicing industrial beekeepers with Shungite's astonishing restorative powers. Rolling down the window for fresh air, he followed a sudden intuitive impulse and flung a small quantity of Shungite powder out the window, to mingle with the breeze and to sow the healing connection to the Quantum Field wherever the wind might take it.

So began the Grids of Gaia adventure, and the mapping of the ever-growing Shungite Field. And you are welcome to join us as we trace the expanding magic across the face of the earth! For every piece of Shungite - be it nugget or powder or magnet - you order from Cosmic Reality, we will place its location on a worldwide map of the Shungite matrix. And we encourage you to share Shungite with your friends and family across the planet!

Just follow this Google grid and place your marker at your location. You will need a Google account to add your location, or just email your location to us at support@cosmicreality.net and we'll place it on the map for you.

Together, we can watch the Field expand!
