THE WOMAN WHOSE CELLS SANG ALL NIGHT LONG

by Michael Henry Dunn
(for Cosmic Reality)

These days we can all reach a point where the toxins get us down: the stress, the noise, the "electro-smog" of EMF and Wifi bombarding us from a hundred unseen sources, while the body quietly sends us distress signals of exhaustion and a longing for relief.
And then there are those of us who have the burden (or gift!) of being energy-sensitive: those who can tell you when the planet's Schumann Resonance is spiking, or when a storm is coming on a cloudless day...or who quietly walk out of the room when you are microwaving your popcorn.

The miracles of Shungite don't discriminate between the sensitive folks and the rest of us: the purifying energy, the protection against EMF, the uplifting vibration are there for all of us (at least, provided you're not dead set against being healthy and happy - before such stubbornness even Shungite will politely retire!).

Today we can share with you the story of Patricia, who is not only totally open to health and happiness, but who also carries the blessing/curse of energy sensitivity. Patricia had already experienced a marked lessening of distress from EMF and Wifi by wearing a Shungite Pendant, and placing S4 Shungite Stickers on her laptop and cell phone. And then a friend gifted her with a bar of Shungite Pink Himalayan Sea Salt Soap.

Dealing with the stress of moving her house, Patricia decided to give herself the treat of a hot bath that very night, using the Shungite Soap. We will let her tell you in her own words what transpired:

"Well, the shungite soap is magic for certain!!! The minute I used it my cells began to sing - literally sing! At first I couldn't hear what they were singing, just that they were ecstatic. Then I could hear the "Omming." So entranced was I that I spent the night listening to this Okay, we’re not going to guarantee that you will hear a magical choir of singing cells when you immerse in a hot bath with Shungite Soap. But there is no denying the steady flow of testimonials we receive from those who take care to create a Shungite environment in their homes. Whether it’s Shungite Magnets on the fridge, or an S4 Shungite Rubber Pad beneath your pillow or laid along an aching muscle, there is a tangible mood lift and even a spiritual joy that manifests along with the practical benefits of purified water, lower electric bills, or soothing relief from body aches.

As Cosmic Reality’s Nancy Hopkins has noted -

"The Shungite field vibrates in a frequency that opens a doorway to higher knowledge. People continually refer to Shungite having brought them a feeling of happiness."

And next time you take a Shungite Soap bath, listen to your happy cells and let the music begin!
HOW DO WE KNOW SHUNGITE CAN INCREASE HAPPINESS?

We know that Shungite works energetically. Many studies have been done which prove the reality of energy healing. The U.S. medical establishment has, of course, made great advancements in conventional medicine, but lags far behind the rest of the world in energy healing.

The energetic properties of Shungite have long been studied by scientists in Russia (the site of the world's only known Shungite deposit) where they have constructed Shungite-layered rooms to facilitate healing. Their research confirms that the unique energy field given off by Shungite accelerates healing.

The Shungite energy field acts upon the energy field in human and animal bodies to balance them. The energy field is actually a blueprint for the human body. If the energy field is out of balance there will be "dis-ease" in the body. It is not just testimonials of extremely fast physical healing that demonstrates this field. Emotional stability also results, which is why so many say, "Shungite just makes me feel happy."

How can one measure happiness? How can one prove energy is at work along with fullerenes? Just observation and experience. We are not making medical claims beyond what is known about the healing attributes of fullerenes. What we are doing is making claims about the existence of an energy body that responds to Shungite. Here are some of those non-scientific observations:

* Within seconds of dropping a Shungite nugget into a glass of water, the water has been charged. Energy sensitive people can feel this immediately. Their energy body is responding to the Shungite field. Through what is called "resonance" the energy body begins to vibrate at the natural frequency given off by Shungite. This frequency promotes balance in the emotional, mental and physical aspects of any animal including humans.

* Pour Shungite water into a swimming pool or a bath and the vibrating water molecules cause all surrounding water molecules to begin the Shungite vibration.

* Put a Shungite nugget into Aloe Vera Gel and the 99.9% water of the Aloe begins a vibration that can accelerate healing and decrease pain.

Can Shungite Heal My Pets Too?

The healing energetic power in Shungite Energized Water is just as effective for your beloved cat or dog (or chicken or hamster!) as it is for you and your family. Three good-sized nuggets in their drinking bowl is all it takes. And remarkable healing benefits are reported for pets who can wear a Shungite Copper Wire Pendant, especially designed by Cosmic Reality for the smallest member of your family. (One cautionary note - for cats who have not been declawed our S4 Resin Pendant is preferred, as cat claws may become stuck in the copper wired pendants).

SHUNGITE AND THE BEES

NANCY HOPKINS AND DEREK CONDIT SHARE NEWS OF THE AMAZING SHUNGITE BEES, PLUS Q&A WITH LISTENERS

Across our planet, bee colonies are vanishing at an alarming rate and humanity's prospects for survival are shrinking with them. Shungite has been shown to prevent colony collapse - and to help bees thrive. We will keep you posted with video updates in the coming weeks as these hives expand and transform in the Shungite Field!

WHAT IS A SHUNGITE ENVIRONMENT?

The Shungite Environment is one where:

- the EMF/WiFi system has been subjected to the Shungite Modulator through S4 Silver Saturated Shungite Stickers
- the person is wearing a Shungite Pendant
- Shungite Energized Water is being ingested

Once a Shungite Environment has been created in your home (easily done with our Environmental Protection Kit), many physical as well as energetic/emotional benefits may result, including protection from harmful effects of EMF/WiFi and overall improved health and energy. Many report mood lifts and a feeling of emotional well-being as well.

Further benefits may be obtained by placing Shungite Magnets on your major appliances - from the fridge to the car - as well as placing Shungite Nuggets on your main water pipe.
